Usability of the Recommended Peel Watershed Land Use Plan

The purpose of a Regional Land Use Plan is to provide clear guidance for the use and management of land and resources.

The Recommended Peel Watershed Regional Land Use Plan is currently over 350 pages with a sizable amount of background narrative, and appendices.

The plan includes the following main sections:

- ⇒ Description of planning region
- ⇒ Concepts and Framework
- ⇒ Management Recommendations by Land Use Sector and Land Management Unit
- ⇒ Plan Implementation and Revision

What are your views?

1. Did you find the full version of the Recommended Peel Watershed Regional Land Use Plan easy to read and interpret?
2. Would you find a shorter plan more or less useful than the current full-length Recommended Plan?
3. Did you find the Summary Plan easy to read and interpret?
4. Are there any changes you would like to see in the layout and presentation of the next version of the Plan?
5. Do you have any other comments on this topic?

The full Plan and Summary Plan are available at: www.peel.planyukon.ca/downloads/RLUP.html
